

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding young Missouri citizen who is to be commended for the heroism and bravery she displayed during what could have been a life-threatening situation; and

Whereas, Stephanie Mauck, a junior at Fair Play High School in Fair Play, Missouri, was one of a dozen students traveling on a school bus when its driver lost consciousness while transporting the youngsters from the Dallas County Vo-Tech School in Louisburg back to Fair Play High School; and

Whereas, students realized the driver was unconscious as the bus crossed Jefferson Bridge, which crosses Pomme de Terre River on Rt. D north of Bolivar, and drifted across the center line before striking the guard rail on the bridge; and

Whereas, while two other students worked to bring the bus to a stop, Stephanie Mauck utilized her training in CPR and tried to revive the bus driver; and

Whereas, Stephanie Mauck and the other students were able to successfully bring the bus to a stop before performing CPR on the bus driver and calling 911 for help; and

Whereas, Missouri State Highway Patrolman Terry Mast, who investigated the incident, plans to nominate Stephanie Mauck for the Missouri State Highway Patrol Honorary Trooper Award; and

Whereas, although the driver of the bus later died from an apparent heart attack, Stephanie Mauck was instrumental in saving the lives of her fellow students as well as her own; and

Whereas, students, faculty, and staff at Fair Play High School, parents, and the entire community of Fair Play are exceedingly proud of Stephanie Mauck, a remarkable young woman whose courage and heroism have earned her the praise and respect of all those who know and love her:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Stephanie Mauck at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing her only the very best as she continues to serve as a shining example to others; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Stephanie Mauck, as a mark of our esteem for her.
